

DREAMER SCHOLARSHIP

DREAMers is an affirmative term for undocumented students in the US. DREAMers exist in every state and come from all parts of the world including North and Central America, Asia, South America, Africa, Europe, and other regions of the world. In Washington State, students can also be recognized as SB5194 students.

To be considered for the DREAMER Scholarship, an applicant must be:

- Currently enrolled at Clark College for At least six credits per term
- A student of color who identify as a DREAMER student:

Asian: A person with origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast, or Indian Subcontinent.

African American/Black: A person with origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa

Pacific Islander: A person with origins in any of the original peoples of the Pacific Islands.

Latino: A person of Mexican, South American, or any other Spanish culture or origins regardless of race.
