RUNNING START COST BREAKDOWN
2024 -2025

Cost	Amount
Student ID Cards	$9.00* Annual ID, valid September 1 through August 31 each year (optional).
Associated Student Fees	$7.25* per credit, per term – This charge covers matriculation, technology and facilities fees.
Course Fees	$30 – $50* per course – Course fees will depend on the number of credits taken and the course types. Some courses may have slightly higher course fees.
Books	Estimated at $75 - $150* per book (dependent on course)*
Transportation	C-Tran Bus Pass: Free with purchase of Student ID card*. Replacement: $48*, if lost or stolen Gas for driving (no parking permits required on campus).

Cost Comparison
Full-time WA Resident Tuition (15 credits)	Running Start Cost (15 credits, estimated)
$1,635.70 per term (excludes course fees and books)	$0 - $300.00 per term (excludes books)

*All costs are subject to change without notice.

Running Start Fee Waiver: Acceptable documentation must include the student's name and may include, but is not limited to, documents which proves any of the following:

- Proof of eligibility for free or reduced-priced lunch
- Proof that the student's family is receiving state or federal assistance funds, such as food stamps (EBT) or State medical benefits
- Proof of being a foster youth
- Proof of Social Security benefits

Students can apply for the RS Fee Waiver after applying to the college and receiving their ctcLink ID. To qualify for the additional Fee Waiver students can submit any of the above documents along with their name and ctclink ID number online at https://www.clark.edu/forms/rs-fee-waiver/

Running Start procedures are subject to change, please check www.clark.edu/runningstart for the most up-to-date Enrollment Processes.

Revised 02/07/24