

Commencement
— JUNE 20, 2024 —

Congratulations, Class of 2024!

Commencement at Clark College is an extraordinary time of reflection and inspiration. It is a moment when we celebrate your hard work and achievements while eagerly anticipating your bright future.

Your learning, discovery, and transformation journey was not done alone. Alongside, you have your peers, faculty, families, and friends, all inspired by your dedication and accomplishments.

Today marks the culmination of your dedication, hard work, and sacrifice. We honor you and your well-deserved pride, relief, and exhilaration. As you transition to the next chapter of your life, we hope that your time at Clark College has inspired you to excel and equipped you with the tools to transform your own life and those in your community.

For over 90 years, Clark College has been a place where dreams take flight. Today, you leave your mark on our distinguished history. We celebrate you, your achievements, and the potential that lies within your future.

Please know that you will forever remain a member of the Penguin Nation. You are always welcome here at the college. You will always belong—once a Penguin, always a Penguin.

On behalf of the entire Clark College community, thank you for making Clark College part of your educational journey. We know many exciting and fulfilling opportunities are ahead of you, and we wish you the very best. We look forward to celebrating your achievements in the years to come.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic dress, like judicial dress, probably had its beginnings from an ecclesiastic origin. Over the centuries, British and Commonwealth universities have retained the earlier custom in which holders of doctorate degrees wear scarlet gowns and round bonnets. In the United States, the trend has been to more subdued dress.

Hoods

The academic hood is normally worn by holders of master's and doctorate degrees, but can also be worn by those with a bachelor's degree. The colors seen on that part of the hood which fits around the neck represent the person's major academic discipline. For instance, the School of Education is represented by light blue, Engineering—orange, Arts, Letters, Humanities—white, Music—pink, Physical Education—sage green, Science—golden yellow, and Business—drab. That part of the hood, which hangs across the back and between the shoulders, is lined with the official color or colors of the college conferring the degree. Examples include University of Washington—purple and gold, Washington State University—crimson and grey, University of Oregon—green and gold, and Oregon State University—orange and black.

OPTIONAL REGALIA

Clark College has a tradition of decorated caps, celebration leis, stoles, and cords. These items celebrate the achievement of the degree as well as the diverse backgrounds

Gowns

Clark College graduating students wear gowns of light blue (for high school diplomas or equivalents), royal blue (for associate degrees and certificates), or white (for bachelor's degrees). Administrators, faculty and staff who hold an associate, bachelor's or master's degree wear black gowns without trim. Those with a doctorate degree also wear black, but have distinctive velvet facings down the front of the gown and three horizontal velvet bars on each sleeve. The trim is usually black, but can also be worn in the color reflective of the academic discipline.

Caps

The most common cap worn in the United States is the mortar board, named for its flat top. A tassel is fastened at the middle point of the cap, and worn on the right. The tassel is moved from right to left upon the conferring of the degree. Clark College graduating students wear a silver and royal-blue tassel signifying the school colors. Those who are graduating † wear an additional tassel in the corresponding color of their honor status (see "Academic Honors," on page 2). Administrators, faculty and staff generally wear black tassels, with the exception of the gold tassel worn by holders of a doctorate degree.

and identities our students hold.

Stoles

Stoles have become important additions to the commencement tradition and are sometimes handed down to family members to celebrate the multi-generational achievement of educational attainment.

Some stoles you will see tonight:

- AANHPI stoles: Black background with turquoise (lotus), pink (cherry blossom), yellow (plumeria), and red (rose) stripes, for Asian American/Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander students.
- ASCC Stoles: White stoles with ASCC embroidery to honor student government leaders.
- Athletics Stoles: Silver stoles with the athletics penguin logo for student-athletes.
- International Stoles: White with a symbol representing the country of origin at the bottom for international students.
- Kente Stoles: Black (union with ancestors/spiritual awareness), gold (status/serenity), green (renewal), with a gold key (success) for students who identify as Black or African/American.
- Multicultural Stoles: Black background with red, green, white, yellow stripes and black fringe for students who identify as multicultural or bi/multiracial.
- Native American/Indigenous Stoles: Red background, with navy blue, black, red, and yellow stripes; with bear claw, feather, butterfly, and diamond symbols for Native American students.

- Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) Stoles: Gold with the PTK symbol at the bottom.
- Rainbow Stoles: Dark blue with pride flag rainbow stripes (pride, diversity, and liberation) for students who identify as LGBTQIA+.
- Serape Stoles: Dark blue with gradient bright colors and white fringe for students who identify as Hispanic or Latina/o/e/x.

Cords

Cords are an optional addition to academic regalia. Some cords you will see tonight:

- Red, white, and blue cord for military veteran students.
- Purple cord for students with disabilities.
- Gold cord for high honors.
- Crimson cord for honors.
