

Community Education Summer 2024

Write Your Memoir

Instructor: Amy J Webber BA MFA

E-Mail: amyjwebber13@gmail.com

Course Description:

Write Your Memoir and give this gift of love to your family. This class will provide you with the roadmap to write like a pro. Every memoir has a greater purpose: a lesson or lessons that you learned and want to share with your family and friends. Let's capture those moments. Or perhaps you want to grasp a flash of time like a photograph and write it down before life changes so much that it's forgotten. We will write these unique experiences to entertain your family, enlighten the next generation, inspire others to do great things, instruct those curious about your journey, or for catharsis, and to get your remarkable story on paper.

Learning Outcomes: As a result of taking this course, students will:

Outcome #1: Discuss published memoirs and their design.

Outcome #2: Identify the theme, audience, and structure for their memoir.

Outcome #3: Demonstrate effective non-fiction storytelling

Course Schedule:

Week 1: Tuesday, August 6, 2024: Finding Your Voice through Memoir

Week 2: Tuesday, August 13, 2024: Story Structure and outlines

Week 3: Tuesday, August 20, 2024: How to Write What's Difficult

Week 4: Tuesday, August 27, 2024: Identifying your memoir's theme and "takeaway."

Setting up writing routines

Selected Bibliography/Resources:

Below, you will find recommended references and books to give you more information about effective writing and storytelling. If you have a special interest in a topic we discuss, please ask me for further references.

- Writing the Memoir by Judith Barrington
- Bird by Bird by Anne Lamott
- Steering the Craft by Ursula K. Le Guin
- Writing Your Legacy by Richard Campbell, M. Ed. And Cheryl Svensson, Ph.D.
- Love is a Family: Memoir of a Lifetime by Charlotte Schmidt

Class Evaluation: Class evaluations are sent by email. Sometimes, the email will be delivered to your “junk mail,” but we can assure you it’s from Clark College only. Your responses are completely anonymous. If you do not see your evaluation immediately after class, look in your junk mail and send it to your email address. If you do not receive an evaluation, please email Continuingeducation@clark.edu or call 360.992.2939.

Inclement Weather:

If the College cancels due to icy conditions, you can find this on the college website: www.clark.edu. If Community Education concludes that the weather is too hazardous, we may also decide to cancel this class. In that case, you will receive both a phone call and an email. Make certain that we have your correct contact information by viewing the class roster.

More class information:

We will be writing, so please bring anything you need to do some “free write” during class, such as a computer, paper and pen/pencil, or iPad. We will also share our writing with each other if you feel comfortable doing so. This class will be a safe space for honing your writing skills as well as sifting through your life experiences.

You will be provided with handouts to help you organize your thoughts and writing. If you’d like to bring a notebook to gather them, please feel free.

These are the first questions I will ask in the first class: 1) What is your favorite memoir (if any)? (Title, Author, Theme.) 2) Who are you writing your memoir for? (Yourself, your children, your grandchildren, the world.) 3) Do you read books, and if so, who is your favorite author?

I can’t wait to meet you!

For the second class, please bring:

- one to ten photos of anything that you would like to write about. These photos will spark memories that will help you get started on your memoir!

Looking for classes? Visit our Community Education webpage: www.clark.edu/cce/